Re: Hammerberg, #5148

Dear Mr. Vasaly;

We visited Mrs. Hammerberg, mother of Charles Hammerberg and apparently she is getting along very well. She is working at the Klear Flax Linen Rug Co., and earns $18.00 per week. She has only herself to support as Mrs. Issakson, the married daughter, is working at the Bethany Children's Home and lives there all the time. As far as we are able to learn, there is no cause for Charles Hammerberg to worry in regard to his mother.

Has it been reported to you that one of your former young men, Dominick Richi, of whom we had several contacts, has been in rather serious difficulty? He was shot through the chest, and for a time his condition was considered serious, but I now understand he is recovering.

Yours very truly,

C. G. Durgin
Secretary.
